

The 3rd February 1882.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING AND NATURAL SCIENCE.

No. 223.—It is hereby notified that a fresh course of lectures on Botany, Vegetable Physiology and Practical Gardening will commence from the 9th instant.

2. The lectures will be delivered in the following order:—

Botany	..	On Mondays at 4-30 P. M.	} Central College. At the Lal-Bagh.
Vegetable Physiology	..	On Thursdays at 4-30 P. M.
Practical Gardening	..	On Saturdays at 7-30 A. M.

3. The lectures are open to students and masters from Government and Aided schools on payment of one rupee a month in advance, and to the general public on payment of rupees two a month in advance. Persons wishing to attend the lectures should at once apply to the Superintendent, Government Gardens.

By Order,

T. SRINIVASAIENGAR,
For Secretary.

POLICE.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1146—100.

The 8th February 1882.

Mr. D. Ballard, European Inspector of the Hassan District, returned to duty on the 17th January 1882 from the one month's privilege leave granted to him in Notification dated the 28th December 1881.

By Order,

A. H. MACINTYRE,
Secretary.